Organizational Summary:

Conservation Legacy is a nationwide non-profit. The Corps programs within the organization engage participants in diverse conservation and community projects that serve public and private lands. These projects provide opportunities for personal and professional development and strive toward a high priority of needs for public land managers and community partners. Through the mission of engaging future leaders who protect, restore and enhance our nation's lands through community-based service; Conservation Legacy works toward a world with healthy lands, air and water; thriving people and resilient communities.

Program Summary:

Ancestral Lands Conservation Corps (ALCC) is a program of Conservation Legacy (CL). ALCC provides opportunities for Indigenous youth, young adults, and recent-era military veterans in New Mexico and Arizona and works with other Native American communities and conservation corps across the country to provide similar opportunities. Our vision is to lead our Nations back to ecological and cultural wellbeing and we do this by empowering individuals to positively impact their lives, their communities, and the environment. ALCC's crews and Individual Placements are supported from operational bases in Acoma Pueblo, the city of Albuquerque, Zuni Pueblo, the city of Gallup, and Kykotsmovi (Hopi) and a Regional Individual Placement program.

Position Summary:
